

PARK RULES

Good Times Park® reserves the right to refuse entrance or cancel memberships without notice (or refund) for violating standards of courteous and respectful play or failure to follow published/posted rules.

SUPERVISION: While inside the park, all children age 17 and under must be accompanied by an Adult (age 18 or older). Adults must interact with or keep in visual contact with their child(ren) while they play in the play areas. Young children must be escorted to & assisted in the restrooms. Adults who fail to adequately supervise their children in the play areas may be required to leave the park.

CLOTHING: Bare feet and high heels are not permitted anywhere in the park. Athletic shoes or socks are required to be worn at all times while in the park, except when using the inflatable jumper, which requires only socks to be worn. Socks are available for purchase in the vending machine!

PAYMENT: Prior to entering, paid admission is required for each child through 17 years old. There is no charge for babies under 1 year with the paid admission for an older sibling. There is no charge for supervising adults. Good Times Park reserves the right to automatically charge Violators who enter with more children than paid for, the full rate plus an administrative fee of $20.

ENTRANCE CODE: Sharing the entrance code with unpaid or unknown persons to enter the park is strictly prohibited. If the entrance code is shared, the person who purchased the entrance code will be financially responsible for all children who enter with that entrance code.

SECURITY: Do not hold the interior entrance doors open to allow unpaid or unknown persons to enter behind you.

PARTIES: Birthday parties & celebration activities including using the picnic area for table decorations, birthday candle lighting, present opening, birthday-decorated cup/cakes, etc. are not permitted. Attempts to violate this standard with invited guests for a planned event may result in a $400 facility charge and/or future prohibition from entering the park.

PROHIBITED ITEMS: Gum, balloons, glass containers, hair/scarf/sewing pins/needles, high-heeled shoes, personal children's toys (such as Hot Wheel cars or marbles), cooking or food warmers, pinatas, art projects involving paint, games with small pieces, presents, gift bags, birthday-decorated cup/cakes, and alcoholic beverages are not permitted anywhere in the park. Smoking, including e-cigarettes, is also not permitted in the park.

Persons responsible for balloons floating to the ceiling may be charged a $100.00 facility fee to cover the cost of removing the balloon before it interferes with heating & lighting systems.

PARK RULES

Good Times Park® reserves the right to refuse entrance or cancel memberships without notice (or refund) for violating standards of courteous and respectful play or failure to follow published/posted rules.

TOYS & OTHER EQUIPMENT: Each play area is fully equipped with balls or other equipment needed to play the activities permitted in the park. Certain activities, such as softball, baseball, jump roping, frisbee, skateboarding, rollerskating, golfing, etc., are not permitted in the park.

FOOD & BEVERAGES: Food or beverages are permitted only in the self-clean picnic area. Persons who use the picnic area are expected to clean the table, chairs, and high chairs and to sweep the floor under their table when done. Tables may not be held or reserved.

SAFETY & CLEANLINESS: Do not bring children who have known cold & flu-like symptoms (such as fever, vomiting, coughing, nasal drainage) or possible contagious conditions to the park for at least 24-hours following the end of the symptoms. Utilize the first aid, spill center & biological clean kits if needed and report spills, biological incidents or hazards immediately.

To prevent further exposure or biological incidents, children who vomit in the park will be required to leave the park as soon as possible. Adults who fail to clean up and/or report biological accidents caused by their child(ren) in the park may be banned from future use of the park.

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES: Good Times Park® is an active recreational park designated for children to play. Any religious or ceremonial activities must be limited to the designated prayer area or picnic area and not interfere with normal business operations for which the park is intended. For safety & sanitation purposes, bottle flushing & feet washing are not permitted in the bathrooms.

SPECIFIC PLAY AREAS: Certain play areas have posted rules that are specific to that play area. Adults must determine if each play activity is appropriate for their child(ren) and to enforce to posted play standards.

PROTECT VALUABLES: If cell phones, jewelry, wallets, cameras, and other valuables are brought into the park, they should not be left unattended. For safety & security purposes, power outlets are for park Use Only. Plugging in or charging electronic devices in the Park is not permitted.

Good Times Park® is not responsible for lost or stolen personal property brought into the park, including any items placed in storage cubbies. Theft and malicious behavior may be reported to the authorities.
